

Rapunzel: The One With All the Hair by Wendy Moss

Discussion Questions:

1. Did a character change and grow during the story? Or did your opinion about a character change?
2. The witch ordered Rapunzel to pack her necessities quickly into a chest. If we were being kidnapped, I'm wondering what each of us would pack under such horrible pressure.
3. What did you think of how Rapunzel handled being trapped in the tower? If you were a prisoner in a tower, what would bother you the most?
4. When you read the questions near the end of the first chapter, were you interested in reading more? Why or why not?
5. Did anything in this story make you laugh?
6. Were you sad while reading a certain part of the story?
7. Did you admire a certain character? If so, why did you admire him/her?
8. On page 41 Prince Benjamin tells Andrew that there is a difference in how people feel about knights and kings. Please help us understand what he means.
9. Steven says on page 98 that what will happen will happen and that one must accept one's fate. Why did he say that? Do you agree with him?
10. Were there any "Wow!" moments for you in this story?
